MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Revisions Contained in the 1965 Paperback Edition of Dulles' The Craft of Intelligence

Allen Dulles' book The Craft of Intelligence has now been issued in a paperback edition ($0.75) in the Signet Book series published by The New American Library. The paperback edition is complete and unabridged and also contains a few additions which should be noted. They are as follows (page numbers refer to the paperback edition):

1. The Foreword in the paperback edition is actually pages 1 to 5 of Chapter 1 of the original edition which does not have a foreword. The remainder of Chapter 1 of the original edition (its pages 5-8) comprises the first pages (pages 47-50) of Chapter 3 of the paperback edition.

2. Because of the conversion of part of Chapter 1 of the original edition into a Foreword, all of the chapter numbers in the paperback edition are one number less than the chapter numbers in the original edition. Thus, Chapter 2 in the original edition becomes Chapter 1 in the paperback, Chapter 3 becomes Chapter 2, etc.

3. Page 30 - Some changes have been made in the paragraph on Nathan Hale.

4. The material starting with the first paragraph on page 42 and continuing to the top of page 45 has been added. It concerns the establishment of CIG.

5. Material on Georgieff has been added on page 64.

6. The last paragraph on page 67 continuing to the top of page 68 is added and concerns the U-2.

7. Material on the Chinese Communists has been added on page 92.

8. Page 106 - Paragraph 2 on Philby has been added.

9. Material on the cases of Georges Paques and Colonel Wennerstrom has been added, starting with the fourth paragraph on page 109 and running through the second paragraph on page 111.

10. The last paragraph on page 115 and the footnote have been added. These refer to the cases of Walter Ciszek, Marvin Makinen, the Barghoorn incident and the exchange of Wynne for Lonsdale.

11. The paragraph on Nossenko on page 134 has been added.

12. The material starting with the last paragraph on page 164 and continuing through into the first full paragraph on page 165 has been added. It discusses the use of analysts and support personnel.

13. The material commencing with the third full paragraph on page 175 and going through the second quotation on page 177 has been added. This largely discusses published "myths" about CIA arising out of the Bay of Pigs and quotes from Congressman Arends and President Kennedy in support of CIA.

14. The material commencing with the first full paragraph on page 185 and continuing to the top of page 187 has been added. It deals with the myth that the CIA and FBI are at loggerheads and that CIA is an "invisible government."

15. Pages 224-226 have been added and include the texts of an exchange of letters and memoranda between President Wilson and Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan regarding security of despatches.

16. The material commencing with the second paragraph on page 231 and continuing through page 232 has been revised and now includes the case of Sergeant Dunlap.

17. The first and second paragraphs on page 237 have been added. They discuss certain security problems posed by Soviet penetration attempts.
